

Yew Tree Community School

Inspire Education Community Trust

Learning together and inspiring success

In association with Pie Corbett and talkforwriting.co.uk we are pleased to offer:

Talk for Writing* Training

'Talk for Writing' creates a structured programme, based on the work of Pie Corbett, to enhance pupils' writing skills. 'Talk for Writing' embraces a threefold and cumulative approach, aiming to enhance writing skills by making children feel confident and passionate about writing through the three I's: Imitation, Innovation and Invention.

"What I saw at Yew Tree Community School showed that there was this underpinning understanding of the centrality of the three stages if progression is to be maximised.... I was impressed by everything that I saw.....which reflected the importance the school placed on its commitment to the Talk-for-Writing teaching and learning process." Julia Strong, Deputy Director, Talk for Writing.
